The Wine Selection

We hope you will tour the world on the following pages and choose to quaff the wine of at least one country to complement your meal.

Our wines are carefully selected by wine merchants Corney & Barrow.

Their cellars in Academy Street, Ayr date from 1766 and were the subject of visits from Robert Burns in his capacity as an excise man for the area. A visit to their wine shop above the cellars is a wonderful experience for wine lovers.

Dessert Wines by the Bottle & Glass

Moscato D'Asti, Vini Classici, Fratelli, Italy

70ml £5 750ml Bottle £30

A big enveloping nose featuring the intense aroma of the moscata grape. Slight hints of acacia and honey. Sweet and nicely fresh. Recommended with pastries, strawberries, ice cream and cakes

Black Muscat, Elysium, Quady, Napa Valley, USA

70ml £11 375ml Bottle £45

Ethereal rose-like aromas and lychee like flavours dominate this outstanding dessert wine. Drinking this, you can almost feel you have fallen into a rose garden and been transported to heaven. Recommended with chocolate, dried fruit & richer puddings.

Muscat de Beaumes-de-Venise, Domaine de Coyeux, Côtes de Rhône

70ml £10 375ml Bottle £40

Yves and Catherine Nativelle of Domaine de Coyeux lead the way with their production of Muscat in the Côtes de Rhône village of Beaumes de Venise. This outstanding Vin Doux Naturel exudes tangy, tropical and citrus flavours with delicate floral notes.

Joostenberg, Chenin Blanc, Noble Late Harvest (Org.)

70ml £12 375ml Bottle £50

A decadent and sweet dessert wine full of honey, marmalade and apricot flavours. The product of a "noble rot" and meticulous winemaking

Sauternes Chateau Doisy-Vedrines, France

70ml £14 750ml Bottle £120

This has a very fine palate; sweet, with full-texture and very ripe tropical fruit, with lots of pineapple and syrupy mandarin orange bite. But the warmth and creamy support of vanilla and cocoa bean, plus a striking, waxy lemon core completes a fine, complex but balanced and stylish wine.

Tokaji Blue Label 5 Puttonyos Royal Tokaji Company, Hungary,

70ml £15 500ml Bottle £120

Rumoured to be the world's first 'noble rot' sweet wine and made in tiny quantities, this Tokaji is a dessert wine for any special occasion. Sweet, rich and beautifully balanced, with citrus fruit and fine acidity giving a long, refreshing finish.

Port Wine by the Bottle & Glass

LBV : from a single vintage, matured in wood for up to 4/6 yrs. Fined (filtered) and bottled and sold ready to drink.

Vintage : from a single, outstanding vintage. The wine is aged in wood for approximately two years before being sold for maturation in bottle to develop flavours and nuances.

Tawny : a blend of different vintages aged in cask for approximately 10/20/30/40 years producing a very elegant, refined style full of delicate fruit and nut flavours and for immediate drinking.

Grahams 2015 L.B.V Port

50ml £6 750ml Bottle £70

A great concentration of spicy black fruits and a brawnier palate than is usual for Dona Maria, but there are masses of soft fruit as well, making for an earlier drinking Port.

Fonseca Vintage Port

50ml £8 750ml Bottle £105

Fonseca is a fruity, balanced ruby Port, with fresh aromas of blackberries filling the nose. The palate offers notes of dark berries, chocolate, rich spices and toasted oak.

Corney & Barrow 20-year-old Tawny

50ml £10 750ml Bottle £90

A tremendous old house producing a beautifully balanced Tawny port displaying warm layers of raisiny fruits, nuts & orange peel on the nose with a rich, opulent mouthfeel and length.
